

During a month that focuses on gratitude, Outside the Bowl has so much to be thankful for. From our dynamic international team, to new opportunities and the generosity of our supporters, we would not be able to mass produce hot, nutritious meals (and porridge) without each and every one of you. And we know that the lives of individuals would not be touched without our incredible ministry partners who run hundreds of feeding sites surrounding our Super Kitchens.

Read on for some exciting updates and further ways to get involved!

OUTSIDE THE BOWL IN GUATEMALA

If you have traveled with OTB to visit the Tijuana Super Kitchen then chances are, you've met Vilma Jacinto. Vilma joined the OTB team in 2012 and up until this summer, oversaw daily operations as the Tijuana Super Kitchen manager. In addition to keeping track of accounts, purchasing ingredients, and communicating with ministry partners, you'd often find her with a spatula in hand as she stepped in to cook and help in any way necessary. As Chris Brown announced at the gala, our OTB kitchens have sent out their first missionary.

Originally from Guatemala, Vilma knew that if the time ever came, she would count it a joy to return home to begin Outside the Bowl Guatemala. That opportunity has arrived! Vilma and her family returned to Guatemala in September. With numerous prospects in Guatemala City, Vilma is assessing the opportunity to start OTB Guatemala. She is currently meeting with potential ministry partners and identifying locations for a Super Kitchen. Vilma shares, "It's my prayer that the new Outside the Bowl Super Kitchen would be an instrument for ministries to reach and feed more people."

Watch this video to hear more from Vilma and her move to Guatemala.

We join with Vilma in gratitude and prayer, "To all of you who have supported kitchens like Tijuana and other parts of the world, thank you for your giving heart."

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON A SUPER KITCHEN IN JUAREZ!

The foundation has been poured. The site has been prayed over (pictured below). The construction of the Juarez Super Kitchen should begin this weekend! Yes, that's right! In partnership with Christ's Church in Roswell, New Mexico and their missionaries, Danny and staff at the Mexicali Super Kitchen)! Join us in praying for the construction of this new kitchen and for the many ministries and lives that will benefit from Outside the Bowl.

Elva Vicencio from Agua Viva Church in Juarez, a new Super Kitchen is in the works. Having an OTB Super Kitchen in Juarez, Mexico has been a dream of the LaDucas and Vicencios for years (pictured above with OTB
